

Born Talking

Born talking: Using birth cohort data about speech, language & communication to inform policy & practice
An ESRC Seminar Series

Outline for Event 1

15th January 2015

Woburn House, London

| | | |
|--------------------|--|--|
| 9:30-10:30 | Registration & Coffee | |
| 10:30-11:15 | Welcome and overview of the project | Jan McAllister (University of East Anglia) |
| 11:15-12:00 | Birth cohorts: the funder's perspective | Bridget Taylor (ESRC Senior Policy Manager, Big Data 1 & Life Study) |
| 12:00-12:45 | Speech, language and communication in the birth cohorts: what there is and how to access it | Jack Kneeshaw (UK Data Service) |
| 12:45-13:45 | Lunch | |
| 13:45-14:30 | Speech, language and communication needs: the current landscape | Wendy Lee (The Communication Trust) |
| 14:30-15:15 | How to influence commissioning of services: some case histories | Marie Gascoigne (Better Communication) |
| 15:15-15:30 | Tea break | |
| 15:30-17:00 | Discussion | |